

Chapter 1: Matthew is Surprised

Marilla watched Matthew as he walked in from the fields.
 fields rain barn
 wind beach

She thought that he was working too hard. Marilla laughing running thinking crying working thought that Matthew needed help on the farm. pigs help a good car cows a new horse

After dinner, Marilla said that she had an idea. Her idea was about orphans. Matthew could see that Marilla's orphans fishing school apple pie money idea was not a joke. Marilla said that they were very funny good too expensive not a joke a secret getting an orphan boy. An orphan boy could help Matthew with the farm work. cleaning dishes farm work cooking painting

The next afternoon, Matthew set out for the train station. His head was full Home for Orphans train station general store school house church of worries. He thought that he and Marilla were good ideas happy thoughts worries dreams big words

too old for this sort of thing.

Score: _____

Chapter 2: Marilla Is Surprised

There was no orphan boy at the train station. on the island in Avonlea at the train station at the Home for Orphans in Canada

There was a girl with green eyes, freckles and red hair. short yellow black red brown

Matthew could see that there had been a terrible mix-up. mix-up fight storm
 crash fire

He asked to carry the girl's bag. doll hat bag book dog

The girl's name was Anne Shirley. She said that she had Edward Scotia Green
 Cuthbert Shirley

seen Matthew drive up and she liked him right away. remembered hated liked missed forgot

On the way home, Anne was talking and laughing and almost crying with happiness.

She thought that she would have a real home and a father horse teacher birthday home far and mother at last. There was happiness in Matthew's heart, but he was worried, too.

He knew that Marilla would be angry about the mistake.
mistake dirt weather
 new wagon time

Score: _____

